CITY AND DISTRICT.

While working in a bakery at 1751 L street northwest last night about 8:30 o'clock Christian Weinecke, sixteen years old, living at 18th and E streets northeast, caught his hand in the roller and had it badly mashed. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital for treatment.

A lace curtain coming in contact with a lighted gas jet caused a slight blaze in the house of Andrew Perry, 316 M street southwest, last night about 9 o'clock. The fire department was summoned and the injured boy was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where he was given surgical treatment. The boy's father died about three weeks ago and the day of the funeral his mother was robbed of every cent she had. The boy who received the injury yesterday accidentally shot himself in the leg several months ago.

Curtis Clagett, fifteen years old, living at 506 7th street southwest, fell and broke his leg while playing near Maryland avenue and 12th street southwest yesterday afternoon. The ambulance was summoned and the injured boy was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where he was given surgical treatment. The boy's father died about three weeks ago and the day of the funeral his mother was robbed of every cent she had. The boy who received the injury yesterday accidentally shot himself in the leg several months ago.

Two horses drawing a carriage ran away on the Shepherd road yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock. Edward Barnard, the driver, managed to stop the animal before much damage had been done or anybody hurt.

Albert Cook, colored, fifty years old, who lived at 430 Limerick court southwest, died suddenly yesterday afternoon. There had been no physician in attendance and the case was reported to the coroner and the body removed to the morgue. Cook's death was the result of natural causes, said the coroner.

A small boy named Philip Towe was bitten on the hand by a bull dog yesterday while playing in front of the Woodley apartment building at 17th and Columbia roads. He lives at 1740 Church street northwest.

He—"For the same reason that a little man always has a big dog."

MUCH INTEREST DISPLAYED.

Preparations for the National Rifle Match at Sea Girt.

The officials in charge of the national rifle match to be held at Sea Girt, N. J., commencing August 24 next, are encouraged at the interest already displayed in the contest. The competitors will embrace two teams from the army (one from the infantry and the other from the cavalry), one from the navy, one from the Marine Corps, one from the Military Academy and an undetermined number of teams from the National Guard of the various states and territories, including most probably the District of Columbia. Owing to the fact that the midshipmen will be away on their regular summer cruise in August, the Naval Academy will not be represented at the national match this year.

It has been arranged by Capt. F. E. Evans, U. S. M. C., who will have charge of the Marine Corps rifle team in the match, to have that team engage in target practice on the District National Guard range near Annapolis, D. C. Candidates for the team will be selected by him, and they will be given preliminary instruction and do a little gallery firing before going on the range. Application has also been made for the team to practice on the range at Sea Girt, and doubtless that will be granted.

John Plead Guilty.

John Parker, colored, entered a plea of guilty when arraigned in the Police Court this morning as an alleged vagrant. "He spends most of his time about disreputable houses and saloons," was the complaint. Police Constable Catz. "Last winter he spent six months in the workhouse, and when he got out he went right back to the disreputable section."

"How does he manage to earn his living?" the court asked.

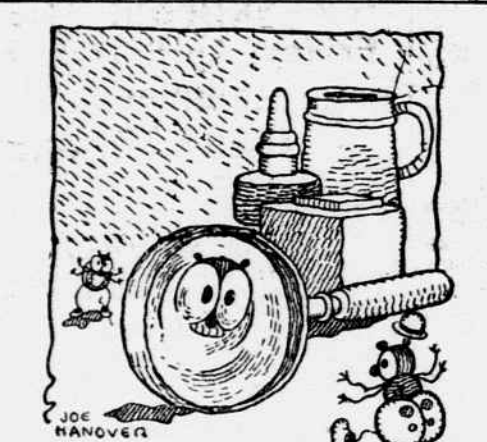

"By running errands and doing odd jobs for disreputable people," was the policeman's response.

"Why do you go to such places?" Judge Kimball asked the prisoner.

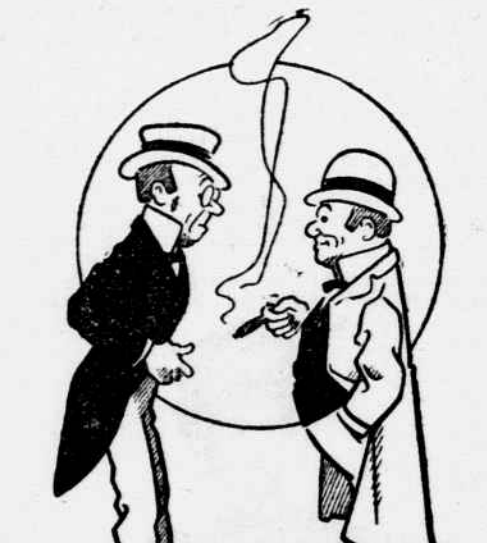

"Because I can earn more money there than I can anywhere else."

"Sixty days."

Mrs. Pepper's Lecture.

NEW PASTOR IN PULPIT.

Rev. George W. King Preaches at Dumbarton M. E. Church.

A congregation at the Dumbarton Avenue M. E. Church, Georgetown, listened to the first sermon of the new pastor, Rev. Dr. George W. King, who was transferred from the Methodist Episcopal Church at Forest Park, Md., at the annual meeting of the Baltimore conference in this city last week.

Dr. King took for his text 2 Corinthians iv. 5: "For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus, the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus sake." He is an eloquent preacher and held his audience well. He said the true minister in his sacrifice and service is nearest the Savior.

"In some senses," he continued, "we are all ministers and all are called. We are called to preach the message, o'ce, and motive of the ministers, and 'Christ Jesus the Lord,' our science, but 'Not Christ Jesus the Lord,' I am not here to say anything against science—true science, that builds its platform on the rock of the philosophy of science."

Referring to his new duties here, Dr. King remarked: "I stand before you a new minister in your community, and I find that to me the hardest thing is the separation from my old city. I have loved and loved and regret the loss of the pastor who has labored for and with you for the past six years, and has now gone to assume the pastorate of Dumbarton Church."

The last pastor of Dumbarton Church was Rev. Frank H. Havenner.

Catalogues ready.—Advt.

Religious Instruction in Schools.

Referring to the question of religious instruction in the public schools, Dr. Parsons of the Church of the Reformation said yesterday morning:

"This contention over religious instruction in the public schools is all a waste of time. The public school is not the place for religious instruction. It is the place for teaching in it a kind of intimacy between teacher and scholar, something like that which exists between parent and child. It is the place for religious instruction, as would be the case if religion became one of the subjects to be taught by the public school."

"Most of us would resent the attempt to instruct our children in religious matters at the public expense by those whose spiritual qualifications we are unwilling to use, or know to be defective. The entire matter is left best to be left to the parents. The Bible in the schools without note or comment. The new proposal enters upon the doubtful course of making comment and interpretation. This would be a mistake. It would be a mistake of many. The dispute over it thus far shows that it would be a step backward."

Saengerbund Theatricals.
The musicians of the Saengerbund gave way to the amateur actors last night, and two sketches were presented by the dramatic club of the organization in the cozy concert hall before a large audience. The pieces presented were the one-act farce "Elizabethe" (by Karl Niemann, and the one-act opera, "A Hermitage in-law from Berlin," by R. A. Diermann. The program also included orchestral numbers under the direction of William Berens, Jr. The most important feature of the entertainment was the opera, which called forth the best efforts of the Saengerbund.

Thiele carried off the honors and also carried on most of the play. She sang three parts and won applause in every scene. Rocker was the leading man and acquitted himself creditably, and the remainder of the cast included Mrs. F. Carl, Mrs. Rosenberger, Mr. W. W. Schultz, and Miss Thiele. The characters in the farce were all well taken and provoked much laughter. The play was a success.

The fifty-fourth anniversary of the organization of the Saengerbund will be celebrated at the club house on Easter Sunday evening. An elaborate program has been arranged for the occasion and it is expected that the event will prove notable in the history of the organization. On May 7th the anniversary of the death of Schiller will be observed with appropriate exercises.

Michael Was Drunk.
Complaint was made in the Police Court this morning that Michael Gorman had been drunk and disorderly about the home of his parents on H street northeast.

"I was called to the house Saturday," Police Constable Curd told Judge Kimball, "and found the prisoner drunk and annoying. His mother is sick and apparently dying, and his father is a cripple. I warned him about his conduct and he promised he would behave. When I was called there a second time I arrested him."

The prisoner had nothing to say, and a fine of $10 was imposed.

15 YEARS OF TORTURE

Itching and Painful Sores Covered Head and Body—A Marvelous

CURE BY CUTICURA

"For fifteen years my scalp and forehead was one mass of scales, and my body was covered with sores. Words cannot express how I suffered from the itching and pain.
